AWARDS 26th ANN ARBOR FILM FESTIVAL

The Tom Berman Award $1000

Tom Berman was a University of Michigan film student, and an early supporter and close friend of the festival. His brilliant early films won many awards. He was much loved here. In his memory, an annual award of $1000 is given to "the Most Promising Filmmaker in the Festival". All films submitted to the festival are eligible for this prize.

The Marvin Felheim Award $100

Marvin Felheim was one of the founders of the Ann Arbor Film Festival. As a film scholar at the University of Michigan, his wisdom and strength guided the festival for seventeen years. He was both benefactor and critic, but most of all, our friend. His contributions to the festival are commemorated by this annual award of $100.

ANN ARBOR FILM FESTIVAL

TWENTY-SIXTH ANN ARBOR FILM FESTIVAL MARCH 8 - 13, 1988

There is yet time enough for you to take a different path.

To encourage the work of the independent filmmaker and to promote the concept of film as art, the community of Ann Arbor is pleased to present the TWENTY-SIXTH ANN ARBOR FILM FESTIVAL

This year's Festival is dedicated to the memory of Isabella Liddell, friend and supporter of the Festival since the beginning.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEE

Each film submitted to the Festival was screened in its entirety by a Selection Committee composed of filmmakers and volunteers knowledgeable in the independent film. Their function was to select as many films as possible for the time allotted. Because the number of entries exceeds the public screening time available, not every film can be programmed. Members of the Selection Committee were:

Oakley Garcia, Sachet Del Monico, Fred A. Star, Pagan Van Dango, Ben Gaahn, Viola T. Yummy, St. Stephen, Jesus Y. Maria Concepcion

THE AWARDS JURY

The function of the Awards Jury is to: (1) see all the Festival films that have been programmed for public screening, and others, if they wish, and (2) distribute the awards money in Ann Arbor, and (3) make up different programs of award-winning films and highlights that are shown on Sunday night.

The Award Jury this year is:

James Duesing, an animator and video artist from Cincinnati, Ohio

Deanna Morse, an animator and Associate Professor of Communications at Grand Valley State University and Board Member of the Association of Video and Filmmakers

J. Leighton Pierce, and experimental filmmaker and Associate Professor of Film & Video Production at the University of Iowa

SCREENING INFORMATION

Screenings are held at the Michigan Theater: 8:30 Tuesday, 7:00 & 9:30 pm Wednesday through Saturday. All three judges will present screenings of their films for free at 3:00 pm Wednesday, Thursday, & Friday afternoons. There is also a free screening on Saturday afternoon at 1 pm.

Single admission is $4.00. Daily series is $7.00. Advanced ticket sales begin at 6:30 pm for that day only, in the Box Office of the Michigan Theater.

A $25.00 series pass, good for the entire Festival, is on sale the opening day of the Festival at 6:30 pm. All tickets are sold at the Michigan Theater.

Sunday night screenings of the Winners at the Festival are at 5:00, 7:00, & 9:00 pm. Ticket sales begin 1 hour before showtime. Winners will be announced at that time. Ticket prices: $4.00 for one show, $7.00 for two, $10.00 for all three shows.
